Q: "Before I Die...?"

Candy Chang, a New Orleans artist and urban planner, first posed this question to her neighbors in 2011. Chang installed large-scale chalkboards for passersby to anonymously share their hopes, dreams, and bucket list aspirations.

Since then, the "Before I Die..." project has gone global, but PRR, Inc.'s wall was the first in Seattle.

Since 2011, there have been:

500+ Before I Die walls installed in

60+ COUNTRIES

In 30 LANGUAGES

and over 3.5 MILLION views of Chang's 2012 Before I Die TED Talk*
